Job purpose

Kent Sport is responsible for physical activity and wellbeing at the University of Kent. The department supports students, University staff and members of the public through facilities and services delivered on the Canterbury Campus. Kent Sport is actively seeking to recruit a University Tennis Centre Assistant to support the Tennis Development Manager in the day to day running of the Tennis programme at the University of Kent. The post holder will seek to increase the tennis provision on all fronts from recreational participation through to high performance and competitions for student, staff and community members, delivering a year round tennis programme to support of the goals of the LTA and Kent Sport developing opportunities for players of all levels.

The role offers variety through administrative tasks and practical activity delivery in the four court Kent Indoor Tennis & Events Arena (KITEA) as well as being part of the wider Kent Sport Team responsible for the delivery of a comprehensive and diverse programme of sport and physical activity sessions and one-off events engaging students, staff and the community in various forms of physical activity. Working under the leadership and mentorship of the Tennis Development Manager this role requires a creative team focused individual who can contribute efficiently and effectively to the delivery of an outstanding customer service that will contribute positively to the wider departmental strategy, to create and embed an Active Campus.

The post will be for a fixed 18 month term and consist of 20 hours per week organising and developing tennis opportunities for all members. The post is part-funded by the Lawn tennis Association as part of the University's Tier 2 status as a LTA endorsed facility and programme.
