MEDICAL

Kent and Medway Medical School

KMMS welcomed its first students in 2020 and achieved full GMC accreditation in 2025. Our mission is to widen participation, train excellent doctors, and improve health in Kent and Medway. We deliver a five-year undergraduate programme and a growing portfolio of postgraduate study, including the MSc in Clinical Education and Physician Associate Studies.

Equity, Diversity and Inclusion

KMMS is proud to have a diverse and inclusive community of students and staff. We welcome applications from members of all the non-majority parts of our community and KMMS is committed to fair treatment and to ensuring that the learning and working environment are supportive and inclusive to all. Duties in the delivery of learning, teaching and supporting students and staff should be performed in a manner in keeping with the School's core values.

Job purpose

We are seeking an inspirational educator and role model to lead the delivery and quality assurance of clinical teaching in surgery across year five of the school's undergraduate medicine programme. The post-holder will ensure equivalent learning across all clinical placements and also be involved in clinical teaching to ensure it remains relevant to meeting the requirements for a primary medical qualification.

The role will involve working on the campus sites of both the partner universities in Canterbury and Medway and conducting extensive liaison work with placement providers based across Kent and Medway.

The role is open to suitably qualified individuals who have a specific interest and background in undergraduate medical, health sciences or healthcare education, and who are working in current clinical surgical practice. The successful applicant should have contemporary expertise in curriculum design, delivery and evaluation in undergraduate clinical healthcare and/or medical education. Ideally, they will also have experience of clinical and educational supervision, student support, inter-professional learning and assessment.

Additional Information:

- The post holder's clinical sessions will normally be undertaken under the auspices of an NHS organisation in Kent and Medway. Matters relating to honorary clinical contracts, accreditation and on-going clinical practice will be discussed on an individual basis with the successful candidate.
- The job holder will be required to participate in annual appraisal within KMMS (as well as within their NHS clinical employer if applicable).

Key accountabilities

- Using experience of clinical practice, deliver and contribute to the design of high-quality, demand-driven, and student-centred taught programmes as a member of the teaching team.
- Collaborate with placement providers to ensure consistency in the quality of Year 5 placement delivery across all acute trust hospitals and delegated placement providers.
- Participate in placement quality assurance activity such as visits to acute trust hospital and delegated placement provider sites, and the evaluation of student and placement provider feedback and assessment data.
- Undertake additional leadership roles within the School, as determined by the line manager, and participate in the School's citizenship responsibilities, including committee membership, staff development, and contribution to institutional strategic priorities.

Key duties

The following are the main duties for the job. Other duties, commensurate with the grading of the job, may also be assigned from time to time.

1. Teaching and Learning

- Using experience of clinical practice expertise, deliver high quality teaching and assessment in a variety of settings, developing critical thinking and clinical reasoning skills in students.
- Contribute to the delivery, organisation and review of the teaching of surgery across the entire BM BS programme, ensuring that it is clinical up-to-date and satisfies GMC requirements.
- Ensure student learning needs and outcomes are met through a standardised approach to curriculum content, methods of delivery and learning materials.
- Using experience of current clinical practice, develop own teaching materials, methods and approaches.
- Seek ways of improving performance by reflecting on teaching design and delivery and obtaining and analysing feedback.
- Participate in student recruitment and assessment activities across all 5 years of the programme.

2. Strategic Management

- Using experience of current clinical practice, collaborate with placement providers to ensure consistency in the quality of placement delivery related to Surgery across all acute trust hospitals and delegated placement providers.
- Contribute to and influence preparations for effective internal and external academic quality and governance processes and systems, including those associated with professional, statutory and regulatory bodies.
- Be a member of the KMMS management organisation and attend and participate in the work of KMMS boards, committees and sub-committees as directed by their line manager.
- Support programme validation events and Periodic Subject Reviews.
- As a senior clinical peer, contribute to the School's learning and teaching strategy and to subject level TEF submission.
- Undertake line management and professional development duties to assist team members in their career progression
- Represent KMMS at local, regional and national meetings relevant to medical education with internal and external bodies and develop leadership in this domain.

3. Administration

- Play an active role in all aspects of programme development and management, including (but not limited to) module design and development, recruitment and admissions, marketing, student support, planning and quality assurance.

- Undertake administrative roles in KMMS as required by the line manager any administrative role will be assigned according to the level of your appointment, the subject's requirements and your teaching load.
- Engage in effective and professional communication with academic and administrative colleagues in KMMS, University of Kent, Canterbury Christ Church University and externally.
- Pro-actively contribute to administration, recruitment activities and to the collegial work environment; ensuring all administrative duties are carried out in an effective, efficient, and timely manner.
- Attend meetings and participate in other committees and working groups as required.

You must handle personal and other electronic and manual data in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998, the Deanery Data Protection Policy and the IT Acceptable Use Policy. Data will be stored and handled confidentially and securely, utilised for only agreed purposes and be subject to the access rights of individuals.

Internal & external relationships
